The Marion County Commission sat in regular session pursuant to its adjournment on Wednesday, October 16th, 2013. Present were Commissioner Tennant and Commissioner VanGilder. President Elliott was excused.

The proceedings of Wednesday, October 16th, 2013, together with those had and done under the supervision of Janice Cosco, Clerk and Recorder for the Marion County Commission on October 17th, 18th, 21st, and 22nd, 2013 were approved as submitted and signed.

D. D. Meighen led the Court with a prayer. Brad Starcher from The Treasurer’s John Perdue Office led the Court with the Pledge of Allegiance. President Pro Tem Tennant called the meeting to order. Commissioner VanGilder moved to dispense with the reading of the minutes of Wednesday, October 16th, 2013 and accept them as presented. A question from an attending county resident questioned the last page of the minutes in regards to what was stated by the Clerk. President Pro Tem Tennant asked if Deputy Clerk Thomas Antulov would review the questioned page of minutes again. Deputy Clerk Thomas Antulov replied that he would review and make any changes that were necessary. President Pro Tem Tennant seconded. Motion passed.

For the record, note James Priester, Assessor presented to the County Commission the following Exonerations for approval.

Dated October 23, 2013
Nos. #2013-1363 through #2013-1374

Pursuant to the recommendation of James Priester, Assessor and approval of Patrick Wilson, Prosecuting Attorney; Commissioner VanGilder moved that the President sign Nos. #2013-1363 through #2013-1374. President Pro Tem Tennant seconded. Motion passed.

The Commission received an Order of Probate of Wills from the County Clerk’s Office for the month of September, 2013. Kris Cinalli stated that this Order is a list of Estates in which have been admitted to Probate in the County Clerk’s Office, in vacation of the Commission, from September 1, 2013 through September 30, 2013 pursuant to West Virginia Code §41-5-10, as amended.
BEFORE THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF MARION COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

IN RE: CONFIRMATION OF PROBATE OF WILLS, BY CLERK IN VACATION

ORDER CONFIRMING PROBATE OF WILLS

On this day came Janice Cosco, Clerk of the Commission, and presented a list of Estates in which wills have been admitted to Probate by her office, in vacation, from September 1, 2013, to September 30, 2013, pursuant to W. Va. Code 41-5-10, as amended.

The Commission, having received no objections to the actions of the Clerk, and perceiving no objections thereto, does ratify and confirm the probate of wills in all the Estates attached hereto. The list attached hereto is made a part of this Order by this expressed reference thereto, as if all such Estates are fully set forth herein.

Dated this 23rd day of October, 2013.

Commissioner VanGilder moved that the Commission sign the Order. President Pro Tem Tennant seconded. Motion passed.

The Commission received the Assessor’s Certificate of Compliance for completing the Farm Census of 2013, according to Chapter 7, Article 7, Section 6C of the New Code of West Virginia. County Administrator Kris Cinalli stated that being in Compliance allows the Assessor Jim Priester to be eligible for his additional compensation.
Commissioner VanGilder moved that the Commission accept the Certificate of Compliance and to approve the Supplemental Compensation pursuant to Chapter 7, Article 7, Section 6C of the Code of West Virginia. President Pro Tem Tennant seconded. Motion passed.

The Commission presented the Levy renewal requests from Library, Parks and Recreation and Transit Authority to be added to the Primary Election Ballot. County Administrator Kris Cinalli stated that Erika Reed was present from The Marion County Library; Tony Michalski was present from the Marion County Parks and Recreation and George Levitsky was present from the Fairmont-Marion Transit Authority each to present their Levy’s and answer any questions in regards to their respective Levy’s.
County Administrator Kris Cinalli stated for the record that he has prepared the Orders to forward to the Clerk to add those three Levy Elections to the May 2014 Primary Ballot.
IN THE COUNTY COMMISSION OF MARION COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA

ORDER AUTHORIZING LEVY ELECTION UNDER PROVISIONS OF WV CODE § 11-8-16 TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONTINUED OPERATION OF THE MARION COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

WHEREAS, Pursuant to the provisions of West Virginia Code Chapter 11, Article 8, the County Commission of Marion County, West Virginia is authorized to provide for a levy election for the purpose of general county current expenses; and

WHEREAS, on the 23rd day of October, 2013 came the Marion County Public Library in public meeting and presented to the County Commission of Marion County, West Virginia a request to authorize a levy election for the purpose of continued operation of the Marion County Public Library; and

WHEREAS, the County Commission is authorized by the provisions of West Virginia Code Chapter 11, Article 8, Section 16 to continue it’s levies by entering on its record of proceedings an order setting forth:

1. The purpose for which additional funds are needed
2. The amount for each purpose
3. The total amount needed
4. The separate and aggregate assessed valuation of each class of taxable property within its jurisdiction.
5. The proposed additional rate of levy in cents on each class of property.
6. The proposed number of years of levy, not exceeding five.
7. The fact that the levying body will not issue bonds as provided by this section, if on approval of the proposed levy; and

WHEREAS, the Public Library in Marion County as operated by the Marion County Public Library Board of Trustees is funded partially from funds generated by an excess levy currently in effect in the county; and;

WHEREAS, the levy is essential to the continued operation of the Marion County Public Library and services provided to the citizens of the county would be greatly reduced without the levy funds; and

WHEREAS, for the existing parks and recreation system to continue beyond June 30, 2014 additional funds are required; and

WHEREAS, the Commission is of the opinion that for the good of the public welfare, it is necessary that the levy continue to fund the operation of the Marion County Public Library.
It is accordingly ORDERED that pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 11, Article 8 of the West Virginia Code, an election shall be held to place before the voters of Marion County the question of a continued levy for the purpose of continued operation of the Marion County Public Library in Marion County, West Virginia. MARION COUNTY COMMISSION

RANDY J. ELLIOTT, PRESIDENT

BURLEY BUTCH TENNANT, COMMISSIONER

ERNIE J. VANGIZER, COMMISSIONER

ATTEST:

JANICE COSCO, COUNTY CLERK

Thomas F. Antulov, Deputy
The Marion County Parks And Recreation Commission requests that the Marion County Commission prepare an order authorizing a "Levy Election" under provisions of WV Code, Chapter 11, Article 8, Section 16.

MCPARC is currently operating under a levy that is due to expire June 30, 2014. The request is to prepare for the May 2014 Primary Election.

The MCPARC Board has voted to pursue the levy as stated at the September 23 MCPARC Board Meeting.

MCPARC has seen an increase in facilities and programs in recent years. An increase in operation costs and repairs continues to raise the needs for our organization. MCPARC has a long-term plan that includes an expanded rail trail system, riverfront development, and an indoor recreation center.

The request for support is a rate of levy in cents on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) assessed valuation of taxable property in Marion County, West Virginia, as follows:

- Upon Class I properties: 2.0 cents
- Upon Class II properties: 4.0 cents
- Upon Class III and IV properties: 8.0 cents

Thank you for your assistance and support.

Respectfully,

Tony Michalski
MCPARC Director

ENTERED: October 23, 2013
President Pro Tem Tennant wanted to thank each of these Entities for the great job that each of them perform for the residents of Marion County. Commissioner VanGilder stated that he appreciates that these entities spend the tax payer monies wisely and for not asking for any additional funds as well.

Commissioner VanGilder moved that the Commission approve the Library, Transit and Parks Levy and that they be added to the May Primary 2014 Ballot. President Pro Tem Tennant seconded. Motion passed.

The Commission received a request for funds from Main Street Fairmont to help defray cost of “Feast of the Seven Fishes”. Kate Greene was present to request the funds and answer any questions. Also present was Shannon Tinnell, one of the co-founders of the Feast of the Seven Fishes. She stated that they are requesting $5,000.00 from the Commission. Kate added that the Magazine Country Living is sending a reporter to do a feature on the Festival which will be features in the November 2014 issue of their Magazine. Shannon added that the event will be on Saturday, December 14th, 2013 from 11a.m. until 7:00 p.m.
Commissioner Tennant asked if the issue with the Health Department has been resolved, because he was told by some of the vendors that if not they may not come back to the event. Kate Greene replied that she had considerable amount of discussions with Lloyd White of the Health Department and those issues have been resolved.

Commissioner VanGilder moved that the Commission allocate $4,000.00 to the Feast of the Seven Fishes and that those funds be appropriated from the Coal Severance Fund. President Pro Tem Tennant seconded. Motion passed.
For the record, note the Commission received the notification from Time Warner Cable of pending expiration of agreements with programmers and broadcasters.
Kim Brooks of 612 MAC came before the Commission to request funds in order to operate their facility. She came along with Frank Hines to request these funds. These funds will allow them to operate their facility for six months. They just received their 501 (c) 3 once again which took two years. At present they are working of their dues being paid. President Pro Tem Tennant stated that they could not make a decision on this because it needs to be placed on the agenda for next week. President Pro Tem Tennant added that we have helped you in the past; however, if seems that you have a turnover of people and then things go... you get the facility looking nice and then nobody shows up. Kim Brooks added that she recognizes that as well but the only difference between the group that is up there now and the group in the past; the past they had money and now we don’t. President Pro Tem Tennant stated that it would be placed on the agenda next week.

Anthony and Donna Armstead came before the Commission to ask for their assistance in the Matter of the Estate of Michael Armstead. President Pro Tem Tennant stated that since they were not on the agenda that the Commission would sit down and talk with them after the Meeting. The Armstead’s were pleased with that suggestion.

Charlie Reese presented the update on the Palatine Park Project is that we had three companies bid on the demolition of those homes and ReClaim Company won the bid at $17,187.00. He added that they will take care of the asbestos removal and dumping. Charlie added that we will begin tomorrow the process of selecting an engineering firm to do the lay out of the Palatine Park. We will select three of the ten firms to interview and make our determination form those three. Charlie stated for the record that the Industrial Park Access Fund; we have a grant application with the State of West Virginia for $250,000.00 and we should be learning this week of its outcome. Charlie added that it looks very promising at this time. Commissioner VanGilder asked if the demolition bid was for both homes. Charlie Reese replied in the affirmative. Commissioner VanGilder replied that that was a very good bid.

There being no further business to come before the County Commission, it is ordered that this Commission do now recess until, Wednesday, October 30th, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. for the next scheduled County Commission Meeting.
