RE: Donna Heckel

Effective today, Donna Heckel has resigned her position effective immediately.

I spoke with Donna this morning reference to her request to go part time. I told her there were no part time slots available. She made mention of Brent Riggs holding part time status and was advised that Brent and Sabrina were grand fathered in because they were made part time under old management. She was told that we have 26 full time dispatcher slots. I encouraged Donna not to leave without a two week notice and she said she didn't care anymore. Sabrina advised Donna not to burn her bridges and Donna's reply was "trust me I won't burn my bridges and I will never be employed by Marion County." I thanked her for her years of service to our center. Donna turned in her key and cleaned out her locker.

After leaving she called back in and asked me if she could get her final paycheck on Friday and she was advised that she would receive her final check the next pay cycle with any time we owe her due to resigning her position.

Commissioner Elliott moved that the Commission accept the resignation also. Commissioner VanGilder seconded. President Tennant concurred.

The Commission received a request for a donation from Kristin Wilson, Ms. West Virginia.
