Commissioner Garcia stated that hearing no objection moved that the Commission sign the Order. Commissioner VanGilder seconded. President Elliott concurred.

At a Regular Session of the County Commission of Marion County, West Virginia, continued and held June 19th, 2019.

This day came David A. Glance, Fiduciary Supervisor for Marion County, and presented to the County Commission the Waivers and Applications for Short Form Settlements, Proposed Settlements and Annual Settlement Reports filed by the personal representatives of the following estates, which he has reviewed and approved and which are the same estates which were advertised for proposed settlement in the June 3rd, 2019, issue of the Fairmont Times West Virginian, all in accordance with West Virginia Code 44-3A.
Thereupon, the County Commission proceeded to hear any objections or exceptions to these proposed settlement reports, as required by law, with the exception of the Anna Louise McCright Estate which is to be removed from consideration from this order and hearing no further objections, does hereby approve the proposed settlement reports as submitted and further directs the Fiduciary Supervisor to instruct the personal representatives to conclude the affairs of the estates.

Commissioner Garcia stated that hearing no objection moved that the Commission sign the Order. Commissioner VanGilder seconded. President Elliott concurred.
The Commission presented the Proclamation for United Way “Day of Action”.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, for over 80 years, United Way of Marion County has strived to ensure that our community's important health and human service needs are met in an atmosphere of mutual respect and trust; and

WHEREAS, the historic roles of United Way include providing leadership in identifying and prioritizing health and human service issues in Marion County, and conducting major fundraising campaigns to support solutions for those needs in our communities; and

WHEREAS, the partnership role between the community-at-large and the United Way of Marion County is broadening to include an emphasis on long-lasting community solutions, charitable giving and volunteer contributions; and

WHEREAS, United Way of Marion County strives to improve our local community through their community impact initiatives, such as the nationally recognized Day of Action, as well as through the annual fundraising campaign.

WHEREAS, United Way of Marion County encourages all citizens to give back to their community through volunteer service.

NOW THEREFORE, I, ( ), ( ) of Marion County, do hereby proclaim June 21, 2019 as United Way of Marion County’s in Marion County and I urge all citizens of the area to become actively involved in supporting United Way, through its campaign, and volunteer initiatives.

DAY OF ACTION

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the Marion County this _____ day of ________, 2019.

Commissioner Garcia moved that the Commission sign the Proclamation for United Way “Day of Action”. Commissioner VanGilder seconded. President Elliott concurred.

The Commission presented various Internal Budget Revisions from the County Commission to clear up negatives.
Commissioner Garcia moved that the Commission approve the internal budget revision. Commissioner VanGilder seconded. President Elliott concurred.

For the record, note the County Clerk’s Office has submitted to the West Virginia State Auditor’s Office, the Delinquent 2019 Real Estate Tax List.

For the record, note the Commission received the Report on Applying Agreed-Upon Procedures for Marion County Magistrate Court for the Period Ended December 31, 2017.

Jim Chadwell came before the Commission to request the ability to review the Health care Premiums through PEIA that the Commission covers their employees with at this time. He added that he works with a broker who may be able to save the County funds by switching policies. He continued that three counties in West Virginia have switched those being Ohio, Berkeley and Jefferson.

Lloyd White the Marion County Health Department Director gave an update on various issues that are currently affecting West Virginia and Marion County. The main issue is the water issue in the Fairview area; e coli. He presented short term as well as long term goals to correct this problem. Mr. White also gave an update on the Harm Reduction Program.

President Elliott stated that Marion County has the highest percentage of public water in West Virginia and Mr. White agreed with that statement.

Travis Hardwick, an Eagle Scout was present at the Commission meeting in order to obtain his merit badge. He is from Troup 16 Mt. harmony Chapel.
Commissioner VanGilder commented on West Virginia’s Who’s Who; whereby Rick rock the Director of the North Central Regional Airport made it in the Book this year. President Elliott commented also on the success of the Airport at this time under his leadership; it is growing.

There being no further business to come before the County Commission, it is ordered that this Commission do now recess until, Wednesday, July 3rd, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. for the next scheduled County Commission Meeting.
